

MRS. LEO SENDS RECOMMENDATION TO THE A. A. U.

Mrs. E. Fullard-Leo, member of the national swimming committee of the A. A. U., wired to the national body yesterday recommending that Johnny Woodd, sprint star, and Warren Kealoha, backstroke swimmer, be invited to participate in the national championships at Philadelphia next month. The A. A. U. has set aside $200 to help defray the expenses of swimmers from Hawaii who are sent to the meet.
