

JAPAN WINS TWO-DAY MEET WITH HAWAII

(Continued from Page 1)

line in the 200 meters freestyle event in what is claimed to be a new world's record in a 50 meter pool. His time for this event was 2 minutes, 16 4-5 seconds. Johnny Woodd and Sam Kahanamoku, both wearers of the Hawaii colors, finished second and third respectively.

KEALOHA WINS HUNDRED

Warren Kealoha, Hawaii's premier swimmer, who broke the world's record in a 400 meter backstroke exhibition event yesterday, took first honors in the 100 meters backstroke swim today. His time was one minute and 14 seconds. Kimura, local youth, touched the end of the tank second, and Gay Harris, of the visiting team, was third.

In the 1500 meters freestyle event Arai churned the water to finish first in the excellent time of 22 minutes and four seconds. C. Crabbe, Hawaii, was close at his heels, and Yoneyama finished third. Benton Wood, Hawaii, was fourth.

A new world's record was set up in the 800 meter relay by the Japanese mermen. The local lads finished in 9 minutes, 38 1-5 seconds. Noda, Sada, Arai and Takaishi made up the winning four, and the Hawaii team was composed of E. Crabbe, Sam Kahanamoku, Gay Harris and Johnny Wood.

NO ALIBIS

At the close of the meet the Hawaiians made no alibis. They declared they did the best they could, and hoped to do better in the Osaka meet, which is to be held on September 11 and 12.

The Japanese swimmers, who performed in Hawaii tanks last spring, said they believed the water was somewhat cold for the Hawaiians. The temperature of the water yesterday was 19 degrees, and today 21.