

Dad Center Elected Head Of Local A. A. U. Judge Rawlins Quits

Annual Meeting Results in Many New Faces For Old
Jobs—Harold Godfrey Vice President—
Crumley Secretary

George D. (Dad) Center was last night elected president of the Hawaiian branch of the Amateur Athletic Association. Harold Godfrey, vice-president; Crumley of the Y. M. C. A. secretary-treasurer and a new board of directors containing several new men in amateur circles here.

Dad Center replaces Judge W. T. Rawlins, who resigned when his organization, Hui Nalu, one of the oldest clubs in the city dropped out of the Hawaiian A.A.U. Godfrey replaces William Meinicke and Crumley succeeds Victor Lidga.

Every affiliated club was represented at last night's meeting. The election of Dad Center came as no surprise, as it had been known for some time that his friends had gathered the necessary votes. There was no other candidate offered for the job.

Judge Rawlins was given a rising vote of thanks for his hard work during the past year.

The meeting was a harmonious one devoted entirely to business in connection with local A.A.U. affairs. Reports of the various committees were read, the most interesting perhaps being the report of the retiring secretary, Victor Lidga, who has stressed the need for greater efforts in the various sport branches.

E. Fullard-Leo was elected handicapper and the Registration committee as follows: Mrs. E. Fullard-Leo, Harold Godfrey and Don Watson.

The following affiliated clubs were represented. All-Around Chinese, Outrigger Canoe club, Central Y, Uluniu, Hui Makani, Nuuanu Y, Kewalo A. C., Star Bulletin A. C., National Guards, Normal school and the Firemen's A. C.
