

OUTRIGGER CANOE CLUB SETS 1000 MEMBERSHIP LIMIT

One thousand members will be the limit enrollment of the Outrigger Canoe Club according to a decision reached by the board of directors at a meeting at Waikiki last night. The roster will be made up of both junior and senior members. The building program will commence immediately. George (Dad) Center, will continue his plans for the Thanksgiving Day races.

The club has grown so fast in the past few years that it has been found necessary to set a limit in order to efficiently serve the large number of members. It is stated that only about 100 more can be accepted.
