

the coaching of Dad Center, who tried the experiment of making out of Miss Lovett a 440-swimmer instead of a sprinter, and Center's coaching is mainly responsible for her fine showing.

Center believes that we have too many sprinters among the women at present, and is anxious to develop more for the middle-distance swims.

He is right, too.

---