

Hawaii's Next Woman Swim Champion?

JANICE LOVETT, Outrigger club, who recently defeated Cecily Cunha in the 440, swimming the distance in only six seconds lower than record time. Miss Lovett is still in her teens, a student at Punahou and has improved wonderfully in her swimming during the past year. She has an ideal figure for the middle distance swims, tall, slender, strong, and endowed with a never-say-die spirit.

The only local girl able to give her real competition just now is Mariechen Welsch, and if Mariechen decides to return to the game a race between this pair would be well worth going to see.

Friends of Miss Lovett declare that she will be the next Hawaiian girl to try her luck in mainland competition.
