

SWIMMERS WHO WON PLACES IN OUTRIGGER EVENTS

Here are the swimmers who placed first and second in the Castle swim and other open water competitions held at Waikiki Thanks-giving Day. The races were sponsored by the Outrigger Canoe club, all of the swimmers being members of that organization. Some fast times were made, several minutes being cut off some of the records.

Those shown in the picture are, sitting (left to right)—W. Newport, first in Cunha swim for boys under 16; Alice Mitchell, first in Cunha swim for girls' novice; Clarence Crabbe, first in the Castle swim; Janice Lovett, who won The Star-Bulletin trophy by taking first place in the public baths swim for women; Benton Wood, winner of the public baths swim for boys under 18.

Standing (left to right)—K. Wood, second in Cunha swim for boys under 16; Bunny Culman, second in Cunha swim for girls' novice; Tom Ellis, second in the Castle swim; B. Newport, second in the public baths swim for women; Ed Crabbe, second in the swim for boys under 18; Bob Askew, second in the public baths swim for men over 30; and Cliff Gessler, winner of the public baths swim for men over 30.
