

Olympic Swimmers Make Hit By Showing During Practice

The Olympic club swimmers of San Francisco who will compete in the Mid-Winter swimming meet Monday and Tuesday evenings, held a brief workout at Punahou tank last night before the trials started.

Quite a number of fans were on hand to watch the visitors and were much impressed by the speed exhibited by them, especially their ability to make the turns.

A Hawaiian swimming mark was smashed in the trials for the splash this evening when Linn negotiated the 100 yard freestyle in 1 minute 44-5 seconds. John Paoa, swimming in the second heat, covered the distance in the time of 1 minute 53-5 seconds. The old record was 1 minute 61-5 seconds.

Plenty of promise was seen in the performances of the young aquatic stars and it certainly looks like Hawaii will again be on top of the picture in swimming within a few years, judging by the rate the younger lads are developing.

William ("Bill") Kirchbaum of the Hui Makani club won the 150 yards breaststroke event without much trouble. Ah Kong Pang was second. Souza took the second heat. Bahr, Outrigger Canoe club swimmer, snatched the first best 100 yards backstroke, while Post of the Marines took the second heat.

The following qualified for the diving event: K. Makinney, Lee, Stromberg, Kennedy, Hess and Eurist.

The result of the Japanese events were as follows:

100 yards freestyle: First heat won by Ozawa; second, Kawamura; third, Horiuchi. Time, 1:06 3-5.

First heat won by Kudo; second, H. Kawamura; third, Ewamura. Time, 1:07. Horiuchi failed to qualify.
