in the century backstroke. Four of the strongest swimmers will battle for supremacy in the club relay, and the whole team will answer roll call for the water polo game against the Outrigger hosts.

It looks like a big night for Punahou tank. The original program has been changed slightly, several events added to give the fans an eyeful and help them spend an enjoyable evening.

Norman Ross, famous mainland swimmer, will appear in an exhibition. He has entirely recovered from the gruelling sea derby off Catalina island and those of the younger set who have never seen him in action will take a peek at a real swimmer.

Joseph Pung, the 18-year-old boy, member of the famous Pung swimming family, who

LEAGUE STANDING

	W.	L.	Pct.
Chinese Amateurs .....	3	1	.750
Wah Mun School .....	3	1	.750
Mun Lun School .....	3	1	.750
American Chinese .....	1	3	.250
Young Chinese .....	0	4	.000

THE first round of the Chinese Baseball league came to a close yesterday afternoon at Moiliili Field but as far as the winner of this series is concerned that will have to be decided later. The favorites won as predicted, and three teams are tied for the lead.

Mun Lun's sixth inning rally with Willie Chai in the hero garb, won for them from the plucky Young Chinese outfit 3-1 in the first game. Kan Yen led his Wah Mun scholars to trample the American Chinese 14-0 in the closing game.

The Chinese Amateur Athletes, Wah Mun and Mun Lun are involved in the tie. It is likely that the playoff will be staged before the second series opens.

Hooa Ki proved to be a directing genius yesterday. He caught for the Young Chinese and kept the youngsters from blowing up completely and their fine stand should be accredited to Hoon Ki. Manager Young Fat's boys scored in the third. Bunny Hew was passed and reached second on Ben Quon's sacrifice. Then Sally Wah Chong drove him home on a single to right field. The Tin Can Alley institution made its bid in the sixth.
