RELAY RACES TO BE REAL THING

Century Novice Flashes
Twenty-four; Fifteen
Hurdlers

TRIALS for the Rainbow Relay carnival will be held at Kamehameha field at 4:30 tomorrow afternoon. The tryouts will be held in the following events: 100 yards novice, 120 yards high hurdles, 220 yards low hurdles, 16-pound shot put, discus, javelin, high jump and pole vault.

Twenty-four are entered for the 100 yards novice, including 12 from the Army, and three each from Outrigger, Palama, University and the Y.M.C.A.

Fifteen timber-toppers have signed up for the 120-yard high hurdles. University and Palama both have five in this event, with three from the Army, and one each from Outrigger and Y. M. C. A.

The 220-yard low hurdles will see 17 men in action. University has five, Outrigger four, Palama two and Y. M. C. A. one. Army has five men also.

FOURTEEN IN SHOT-PUT

Fourteen huskies will try out for the 16-pound shot-put. University and Palama will both enter five men, while Outrigger and Army will have two each. Five Deans will throw the discus against two each from Outrigger, Palama and Army, making a total of 11.

The four leading teams are entering four men each in the running high jump, while the Y. M. C. A. has no entry. In the running broad jump Palama is offering six men, University five, Army five and Outrigger and the Y. M. C. A. one each, making 18 in all.

The pole vault for height will see 12 men in action, including three each from Outrigger and University and two from Palama and one from the Y. M. C. A.
