

CENTER ELECTED AGAIN AS HEAD OF LOCAL A. A. U

Two New Clubs Admitted To Organization At Ses- sion Held Last Night

George D. ("Dad") Center was reelected president of the Hawaiian Association of the A. A. U. at the annual meeting of the organization held at the Central Y. M. C. A. last night.

The excellent manner in which arrangements for the recent men's national outdoor swimming championships were handled by the various committees during Center's administration drew much praise from members of the board of governors as they voted unanimously to place Center in office for another year.

Other officers elected were: William Peet, vice president; F. Elmer Crumly, secretary-treasurer; H. O. ("Pop") Pfaender, Don Watson and H. W. Waltz, members of registration committee; C. Dudley Pratt and E. T. Chase, handicappers; F. Elmer Crumly, G. D. Center, H. O. Pfaender, Don Watson, H. W. Waltz and William Peet, delegates to the annual meeting of the national body.

Two clubs were admitted to membership in the A. A. U. and were represented at last night's meeting. They were the Myrtle Boat club and the Advertiser Boys' club. This brought the total enrollment to 22 clubs, although only 13 were represented at the annual meeting.

The following delegates, who comprise the board of managers of the local body, were named by the various clubs: All-Around Chinese, K. K. Lee; Outrigger Canoe club, G. D. Center; Palama Settlement, H. W. Waltz; Central Y. M. C. A., F. Elmer Crumly; Uluniu Girls' club, Mrs. E. Fullard-Leo; Hui Makani, William Peet; Nuuanu Y. M. C. A., H. O. Pfaender; Star-Bulletin Athletic association, Don Watson; Normal school, Jack Dunlop; Fire department, C. H. Thurston; Honolulu Athletic club, William Lederer; University of Hawaii, Otto Klum; Myrtle Boat club, C. S. Crance, and Advertiser Boys' club, Ezra Crane.

Routine reports were received from the treasurer and the chairmen of the various standing committees, including those on basketball, volleyball, track and handball. A report was received from The Star-Bulletin Athletic club on three swimming events sponsored by The Star-Bulletin organization during the year. They were the Chinese swimming meet, Japanese swimming meet and the annual Star-Bulletin Canal swim.

Victor Ligda, chairman of the registration committee, reported that over the head coaching job in the
