DRAW RECORD ENTRANTS

Cup Trophy to Francis Bickerton

The third annual Citywide swimming championships closed successfully Saturday afternoon at the Wai-kiki natatorium with the biggest number of entries and events. Nineteen finals were pulled off on the second and closing afternoon.

Frances Bickerton, a promising mermaid, captured the silver cup trophy when she compiled the highest number of points through her versatility as an all-around swimmer in the Lea cup competition for girls under 16. Frances garnered 14 points, two firsts in the 50 yards crawl and backstroke, one second in the plunge and a fourth in the 50 yards breaststroke.

MISS SLAGHT SECOND

Mildred Slaght came in second with a total of 10, when she took three second places and one fourth. Mary Robertson was only a point behind. V. Hammond and Beatrice Nicoll were tied for fourth honors with 8 points apiece.

Moses Pung is the 1927 champion in the 50 yards backstroke and crawl for boys under 15. He came in third in the breaststroke event. The Kalili brothers captured first and second places in the 220 yards freestyle for boys under 18.

YOUNGEST SWIMMER

The youngest swimming champion is Warren McGinnis, aged only 3 years and 10 months, yet showing so much promise as to be capable of propelling through the briny deep for a distance of five yards. Sachio Torita came in second, this being determined by age, the latter being full five years. He was followed by Peggy and Peter Powlison, twins of 5 years and 6 months. Summaries:
