

'BUSTER' CRABBE WINDS UP TRAINING FOR BIG MEET

Here is one of the swimmers who will perform in the Hawaiian championship swimming meet and Olympic trials to be held at the War Memorial natatorium, Waikiki, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of this week.

"Buster" has been training hard for this meet and it is predicted that he will make faster time than ever. He is shown above in several poses. The Star-Bulletin photographer snapping the pictures while Crabbe was training at the big tank a few days ago.

The picture at right shows "Buster" just before starting his workout. Note the shoulders and chest. Above at left is a picture of Buster "taking off." Below at left he is shown just before the take-off. In the oval below is a view of Crabbe while in the water and the insert just above the oval shows him plunging through the water at top speed.
