

BREAKS RECORD

Meet Lily Bowmer May, Outrigger swimmer, who last night lowered the world's record for women in the 100-meter straight-away freestyle race at the Waikiki natatorium in the opening night of the Hawaiian swimming championships. Her time was 1 minute 12 seconds. This time is also a fifth of a second of the American record for short course made by Ethel Lackie.—Star-Bulletin photo.