Beach Club Members To Have Gala Time Day Of Anniversary

Surfing, Horseshoe Pitching, Canoeing, Swimming, Volleyball, Supper, Dancing on Program Celebrating Twentieth Year of Club's Existence

MEMBERS of the Outrigger Canoe club will have one grand time when they get together Saturday afternoon to celebrate the twentieth anniversary of the club.

A snappy program of sports has been arranged and the gala festival will not end until canoes are returned to their sheds after a moonlight surf.

In addition to aquatic events a volleyball match and a horse shoe pitching contest is listed on the program.

The committee in charge of affairs is as follows:

Invitations, A. H. Ford; tickets, W. Beal; decorating, A. Raymond; reception and general chairman, A. F. Bowman; order, Paul Leebrick; water sports, "Dad" Center; horse shoe pitching, McGrath; supper, Mrs. Trench; volleyball, E. Tucker Chase; dancing, Chris Jenkins; entertainment, Allan McGuire; surf board racing, C. Cooke; canoe races, Tommy Ellis; canoe surfing, George Forrest; announcers, Lloyd Smith and Henry Wicke.

From two o'clock until four canoeing and surfing will draw the attention of the members. From four until four thirty surf board races will be held for men and women from the front of the Royal Hawaiian hotel to the Outrigger clock. After this event until five o'clock, Lily Bowmer May, Mariechen Wehselau and "Buster" Crabbe, local aquatic stars will swim exhibition races.

Starting at 5 o'clock, a boys under 18 crew will race with a crew composed of the directors of the club in a canoe race. This promises to be the prize event of the afternoon program. At five fifteen the boys will entertain the crowd by skidding along the sand.

A medicine ball drill will be held at five thirty and the grand supper comes at six thirty. In the evening from seven thirty to eight thirty the volleyball tournament will take place and the dance starts at eight thirty continuing until twelve when a moonlight surf will bring the celebration to a close.
