

OUTRIGGER MEMBERS TO CELEBRATE

Beach Club Festival on
This Afternoon at 2 o'Clock

Starting at two this afternoon, the members of the Outrigger Canoe club will indulge in a program of sports and general hilarity, in celebration of the twentieth anniversary of the club.

Canoeing parties will start to leave the clubhouse shortly after 2 p. m. At 4 o'clock the surfing races, swimming exhibitions start. The grand feed comes at 6:30 o'clock and after dinner the Hawaiian band will play and the volleyball games will be staged.

Admission to the grounds will be by ticket only. Tickets may be secured at the Outrigger office.

The following is the menu that has been arranged for the grand spread:

Outrigger Canoe club—20th birthday party, April 28, 1928—Menu:

Olives, pickles, radishes a la Outrigger.

Choice of baked pork and numerous beans, a la Raymond or special baked ham, in moderation. (Note: Conscientious objectors may call it veal.)

Potato salad a la Murphy; hot dog without the dog alias buttered rolls.

Cake or pie with a chill, meaning a la mode; all of it to be drowned in tea or coffee, iced or hot, weak or strong, bitter or sweet, or whatnot.

No souvenirs, opu nui, aloha.
