

'Bronzed Merman From Waikiki' On Way to New York With Swim Squad

Crabbe Called 'Big Gun' at the Olympic Swimming Try-Outs Held at Detroit Last Three Days

DETROIT, Mich., June 25.—Clarence ("Buster") Crabbe, the Outrigger Canoe club's one-man swimming team, is on his way to New York with the other members of America's Olympic swimming squad.

Crabbe was the big gun at the Olympic swimming trials held here Friday, Saturday and Sunday, winning two first places. After his brilliant performance Saturday in the 1500-meter swim the bronzed merman from Waikiki won first place in the 400-meter event yesterday. This means that he will compete in two events at the Olympic games.

The Honolulu boy was pressed to the limit in the 400-meter swim by Austin Clapp, the Hollywood school boy, who finished second. Budd Shields was third. Crabbe's time was 5 minutes 10 4-5 seconds.

DR. WILLING IS GOLF CHAMPION

Wins Northwest Title By Defeating Don Moe In Final Match
