

History From The Advertiser Files

FORTY YEARS AGO

H. G. Crabbe opens hay and grain store on King Street opposite old police station.

Chas. C. Marsh of San Francisco lends helping hand to J. C. Lane with new Hawaii Directory.

N. F. Burgess, who leaves on visit to coast, gives his son, G. W., full power of attorney to transact business for him.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Hubert Vos' picture of the Hawaiian, Solomon Hiram, is shown at Pacific Hardware Co.'s, and is a very attractive work.

Wm. G. Irwin makes handsome donation to Waverly Club and becomes life member.

J. H. Godfrey and wife of school at Makaweli, resign. Godfrey accepts a position with a sugar mill as engineer.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Bishop Restarick's little daughter

Margaret is first of girl proteges of Outrigger Club to come in standing on a surf board, all the way from the cornucopia surf to the beach in front of Seaside Hotel.

Marshal Hendry disburses $10,558.05 of Federal money during six months ending June 30.

TEN YEARS AGO

Capt. W. V. Allen is in Command of "Home Guard" of Hilo, J. C. Caceres is first lieutenant, and junior officer of the company is Second Lieutenant A. P. Christian.

Robert Lewers is presented with beautiful I.O.O.F. jewel set with diamonds in celebration of sixtieth anniversary of his initiation as member of Excelsior Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Honolulu.

J. S. B. MacKenzie of Kahului, arrives on his way to Europe via Canada, in order to join British forces.

Sen. Robert Hind buys Humburg home in Makiki district for $25,000.