D. L. Conkling Names Vice-President; Kalili's Mark Is Taken Up

At a meeting of the Hawaiian A. A. U. last night, George "Dad" Center, veteran Outrigger Canoe Club swimming coach was reelected president for the next term. D. L. Conkling was named vice-president, and Ezra J. Crane was also reelected as secretary. Dudley Pratt was named handicapper while Lily Bowmer May was voted in as assistant secretary.

Hawaiian representatives to the A. A. U. convention which will be held in the east this year were also elected. They are as follows:

George "Dad" Center, E. Tucker Chase, "Pop" Pfaender, Mrs. E. Fullard Leo, and Charles Crane.

The association also voted to petition to the National body for the one mile record established by M. Kalili in the Star-Bulletin canal swim on Memorial Day.
