by 2 minutes, 2 2-5 seconds.

The quarter mile women's open championship went to Miss Mildred Slaght, who won a close race from Miss Dorothy Hammond by quarter of a board length. Miss Hines finished third and Miss Beatrice Newport, defending champion, managed to come in fourth. All of the girls represented Outrigger.

Miss Slaght established a new mark. Her time was 3 minutes, 3 3-5 seconds, bettering the old mark by 42 seconds.

Sam Kahanamoku paddled the fastest 100 yards of the day when he crashed his way to an impressive win in the 100 yards for men over 30. In doing so he broke the old record of 43 seconds which was held by Johnny Hollinger, stopping the watches at 31 seconds flat.

Kahanamoku won by about 10 yards. Charlie Amalu and Johnny Hollinger battled it out for second assault had slaughtered the Cougar tackles and ends. Kaakua lost five yards and on fourth down a neat pass clicked for these five yards, leaving the Rainbows two yards short.

COUGARS OUTFOX DEANS

Instead of punting out the Cougars outfoxed their rivals and carried the ball. Schwartz gained three, Lainhart seven, Schwartz three and Tonkin one and the stage was set for the most spectacular play of the season. Lainhart slid off right tackle, swung inside and then broke into the open.

He used speed for the first 45 yards and outdistanced the Varsity line and secondary. Only Holt remained in his path and two Rainbows were beating it up from the rear.

Holt made what appeared to be a fatal mistake when he waited for Lainhart to come to him. Lainhart came with full steam in the boilers and he kept going by the sample but effective feat of changing his pace. Holt took a header into the turf and Lainhart went scooting into the hall of fame.

The run was exactly 83 yards, the east fence stopping the Cougar Express.

KEPT AT IT

The Rainbows refused to accept defeat but Lainhart made the outcome certain and though Kium's back gallantly returned to the field place, but Amalu managed to glide over the finishing line inches ahead of Hollinger. It was a thrilling finish.

OLGA CLARKE TRIUMPHS

Miss Olga Clarke finished first in the 220 yards girls' novice and in achieving the honor, smashed Lorena Hines' mark of 1 minute, 45 2-5 seconds, being clocked at 1 minute, 27 4-5 seconds. She was pressed by Gertrude Slaght, L. Gillespie and H. May, who finished second, third and fourth, respectively.
