

SURFBOARD PADDLING COMMITTEE TO MEET TONIGHT AT O. C. C.

Cecil G. Benny, sponsor of the New Year's Day Surfboard Paddling races on the Ala Wai for the past several years, announces that there will be a meeting of the committee tonight at the Outrigger Canoe club office, at 7:30 sharp.

General discussion will be invited at this meeting on any items of interest in connection with this popular sport, which is gaining headway each year, and consideration will be given to the forming of a Hawaiian Surfboard Paddling association, the purpose of which will be to further the interest of paddling races in the islands.

Two representatives of each beach club and the press representatives will be invited to attend,
