

JUVENILE MERMAIDS WHO WILL PERFORM AT THE NATATORIUM FRIDAY EVENING

Here are some of the juvenile entries in the Duke Kahanamoku swimfest to be held at the war memorial natatorium Friday evening. Several of these girls are making their first appearance in competition. Lying come to the front rapidly during the swim competitions held each Saturday at the natatorium under the auspices of The Star-Bulletin. From left to right are—Suzanne Duryea, 3-year-old member of the Women's Swimming association, who will appear in the diving exhibition; Lavina Watson of the Outrigger Canoe club, who is entered in the 50 yards freestyle; Doris Benny, Lincoln junior high school, who will compete in the 100 meters backstroke; A. Mooklar of Aliiolani school, who is in the 100 meters freestyle, and Josephine Hunter of Aliiolani school, entered in the diving.—Star-Bulletin photos.
