

OUTRIGGER TEAM MEETS HUI NALUS

Surfboard Water Polo Game Scheduled For 3 P. M. On Sunday

Senior teams of the Outrigger Canoe club and Hui Nalu are scheduled to play in a game of surfboard water polo Sunday at 3 p. m. in the course in front of the Royal Hawaiian hotel.

This is the first game of this season between these two teams which met several times last year when the sport was first organized.

Members of the teams, which consist of seven men each, will be selected from the following: Outrigger Canoe club—Gay Harris, Edward Crabbe, A. E. Minvielle, William Newport, Duke Kahanamoku, Kenneth Pratt, George Perry, Tom Blake, Louis Hale and William Paul. Hui Nalu—Louis Kahanamoku, Melvin Paoa, Kino Guerrero, John D. Kaupiko, Jack Hjorth, Pua Kealoha, Willie Whittle and Tony Kiakone.

In the event he does not play, Duke Kahanamoku will referee and other officials will include Knute Cottrell, umpire; Red McQueen, timekeeper; Gilbert Paoa and William Richards, sideline judges; Victor Sheldon and Elmer Lee, five and ten yard judges; Jimmy Alama and Charles Amalu, clerks of course; George D. Center, marshal; and David Kahanamoku, general.