

SENIOR VOLLISTS TO PLAY TONIGHT

Firemen To Meet Nuuanu 'Y' and Pals To Play Outriggers

The Senior A. A. U. Volleyball league is staging two games tonight at the Central Y. M. C. A. All four teams are making their initial appearance of the season.

The Honolulu Firemen will be out in its first struggle to defend their last year's title against the Nuuanu Y. W. C. A. outfit starting at 7:30 o'clock. In the closing encounter another crack pair of teams are showing in the Palama Settlement and the Outrigger Canoe club. This melee is slated to start at 8:30 o'clock.

Fans who take in this pair of games are assured of satisfaction for from all indications action galore will be on hand.

Probable lineups will be:

Palama Settlement—Louis Morton, William Bruhn, Alexander Beck (slammers); "Maggie" Chow, Alec McKee, Tom Hugo (feeders).

Outrigger Canoe Club—Tom Singlehurst, Sam Fuller, Maitland Dease, Gordon May, Wilford Godbold, Herbert Taylor.

Nuuanu Y. M. C. A.—Alfred Chock, Y. O. ("Tiger") Leong, Edward Char (slammers); Anthony Asam, David Au, Harry Lin (feeders).

Firemen — H. A. Smith, Henry Kipi, William Kamai, J. R. Sylva, R. T. McCabe, M. Barrett.