teen all when the victors broke through for the winning points. In the second set, the Roaring Rainbows were a bit slow and the Chinese jumped ahead. Snappy work by R. Reid and George Hansen pulled the Collegians on even terms at 9 all. They gained four more points but the Chinese lads by dint of hard work evened matters at 13 all. The University slammers, however, knocked over two hot ones to win the game.

Hansen and Reid were the outstanding slammers for the winners with Leong Fong, Lee, Van Orden and McLean doing nice feeding. Kanky Chun Cheong Wong and Ray Mau were the chief guns for the Chinese.

NO TROUBLE AT ALL

Kakaako Sons annexed the first set from the Nuuanu Y without any trouble. Captain Pickard inserted the second string in the next set and that riled the Y'ers for they strained ahead to lead 14-13 before Vivian Camara the diminutive slammer banged over the conquering shots.
