

Hawaiian Sports

(Continued from Page 10)

---

by a committee from all the local beach clubs.

Bleacher seats will be erected by the Royal Hawaiian hotel in front of that hostelry and will be sold at fifty cents, the proceeds going into a fund with which to stage next year's regatta day.

Many civic and private bodies are cooperating with the committee in helping to put this first all-Hawaiian beach regatta over with the spirit which prevailed many years ago when the beach sports were the most popular diversions of the kings and queens.

---