SWIMFESTS WILL CLOSE SATURDAY

Last Meet of 20 Weeks
Program Will Be Staged
At the Natatorium

By FRANCOIS D'ELISCU

The 20-week swimfest and educational aquatic program sponsored by The Star-Bulletin will come to a close with the leaders compelled to swim the fastest race of their young competitive careers to hold the lead and win the first place prizes which will be awarded Saturday, May 31, at the natatorium.

The changing each week of point winners and the breaking of records after each week of competition has made the races close, exciting and almost impossible to predict the first five place leaders in each class division.

The ten juvenile championships to be decided for the boys and girls under 13 years of age will end a race that has caused personal interest on the part of school officials, parents and aquatic officials. K. Imori of Washington Muriel Swift of Aliiolani, Doris Benny of Lincoln, Francis Reuter of Sacred Hearts, K. Mural of Washington, John Toomey of Aliiolani and many others will settle the titles between them on the great day, Saturday.

The following is the list of points to date which will change after the
