

HOW CUM?

EDITOR THE ADVERTISER:

Now that the JOG representatives have brot home the bacon, with fame and good advertisement for our Hawaiian Islands, how does it happen that our own champion "Buster" Crabbe, in his last record-breaking swims in California, did not swim under the Outrigger Club colors, or as a representative of the Islands in general?

How is it that Los Angeles can slip this one over on us and use our own Hawaiian-developed champions for advertising their own city?

It seems a pity that the Outrigger Club, of which Crabbe is a member, and where his talent was developed, should not receive the credit and publicity for these world's records.

If we are not mistaken, Crabbe is going to swim as a representative of Los Angeles in his own home town on the 17th, 18th and 19th of this month, and we see no reason why the Hawaii Tourist Bureau, or the Promotion Committees, as well as his home club, should not try and prevent this good bit of advertising and fame, with world's records, and credit for developing swimmers to go out of the Islands and to a City that advertises a climate that only Hawaii has. "How Cum?" We like Los Angeles but we must yell for our "Buster." Again HOW CUM?

Truly yours,

"BEACH COMBER."
