

OUTRIGGER HAS NEW CHARTER

Directors Increased From Nine To 12; Bylaws Are Adopted

Directors of the Outrigger Canoe club are increased from nine to 12 under a charter of incorporation adopted at the annual meeting of the famous Waikiki beach organization Saturday afternoon.

Other changes in the system of club government are included in a new set of bylaws adopted at the meeting.

Six new directors were chosen and six old directors were reelected. The new directors are: Jack Frear, R. A. Smith, Jack Cristy, Tom Singlehurst, Gay Harris and G. H. Barnhart. The old directors are Lorin Thurston, president; Walter N. Hagland, secretary; Dad Center, captain; Bill McLean, Roy Banks and E. W. Peterson.
