

BUSTER CRABBE 400 METER FINALS VICTOR

duce startling performances, Masoji Kiyokawa of Japan and Robert Zehr of the United States winning.

Kiyokawa was not pressed hard, swimming his heat in 1 minute 8.9 seconds, indicating he would be spectacular in the semifinals tomorrow if pushed.

Both Japan and the United States qualified three men for the semifinals of the 100 meter backstroke for men tomorrow.
