

Visitors' Club Is Organized At Outrigger

A large crowd of Honolulu's visitors from other cities gathered at the Outrigger dancing pavilion at Waikiki Monday afternoon for the organization meeting of the Visitors' Club, sponsored by the Hawaii Tourist Bureau.

A troupe of hula girls and music boys from the Kalakaua Junior High School under the direction of Amy K. Awai entertained.

In a short welcoming talk, George T. Armitage, executive secretary of the Hawaii Tourist Bureau explained the purpose of the new organization which is to provide additional recreation facilities for tourists and to enable visitors from various parts of the country to meet socially and to partake in informal card tournaments, games etc.

Headquarters for the club at the Outrigger pavilion will be open daily and will provide game and reading room facilities. Admission will be by cards secured from the Bureau office in the Dillingham building.
