NEW HAVEN, April 4.—The New York Athletic club trio broke its own world's record Saturday in the medley swim for 300 yards in time of 3 min. 1 1-5 sec.

Buster Crabbe, mainstay of the Los Angeles Athletic club, became the individual champion of the four day meet by winning the 500 yard free-style title, his third.

Crabbe's efforts were largely responsible for Los Angeles winning team honors with 45 points. His time in the 500 was 5 min. 38 3-5 sec.

Ted Wiget of the Athens Athletic club was second and Maiola Kalili of Los Angeles was third.

Performing sensationally, Dick Degener, University of Michigan, won the high diving championship, outpointing the champion, Mickey Riley of Los Angeles, who was second.

New York Athletic club took second team honors with 37 points. Maiola Kalili won second place for individual honors.
