

TOURIST BUREAU'S VISITORS' CLUB PROVES POPULAR

Popularity of the Hawaii Tourist bureau's visitors' club was attested last month with 805 calls at the premises of the Outrigger dance pavilion where the club has been established since January.

Of the 805, some 358 used quarters for lounging, reading, visiting or playing games such as shuffleboard, deck quoits, deck tennis and ping-pong which are provided; 112 participated in the weekly bridge tournaments; and 335 attended the popular Friday afternoon Hawaiian entertainments.

Hawaiian programs were donated for the month by Dorothy Campbell's students on March 4, the Honolulu Firemen's Glee club on March 11, and the Kalakaua Junior High School girls' Hawaiian group on March 18.

John H. Baker, in charge for the bureau at the visitors' club, says the services are most appreciated by tourists. Some of them can't understand why the people of Hawaii seem to go out of their way to be nice to visitors. As a woman from California said the other day in commenting upon one of the Hawaiian programs, "Our state has featured its tourist attractions for years and has built up a great travel industry but we don't give anything like the personal attention to visitors that you do."
