

(Associated Press By Wireless)

LOS ANGELES, April 30.—Jane Caldwell, of the Detroit Yacht club, won the 100 yards women's breaststroke event last night in one minute, 25 3-5 seconds. Genevieve Scully, of San Diego, was second, being one yard behind the winner. Margaret Hoffman, of Scranton, did not compete.

The team standing, after five events are: Los Angeles Athletic club, 21; Washington Athletic club, 16; New York W. S. A., 8.

In the Southern Pacific A. A. U. men's championship, Clarence (Buster) Crabbe, of Los Angeles, won the 400 meter freestyle in five minutes 1 3-5 seconds.

A picked team from southern California defeated the northern California polo squad, 2 to 1 in the first game of three for the coast title.