LOS ANGELES, May 1.—Maiola and Manuella Kalili, former Honolulu swimmers, finished first and second in the 200-meter free-style event for the Southern Pacific swimming championships here last night.

The New York Women's Swimming Association team defeated two teams representing the Los Angeles Athletic club in the 300-yard medley event.

Final point standings of the meet were: L.A.A.C. 40; Washington A. C. 30; N.Y.W.S.A. 30; Detroit Yacht Club 5; Florence Chambers Swimming Association of San Diego 3.

Eleanor Holm set a world's record for the hundred yard backstroke event, splashing over the century course in 1 minute, 11 and 6/10 seconds. She broke her own former record of 1 minute, 12 seconds which she established in Florida in 1930.

Miss Holm had little trouble in beating Joan McSheehy, who was second. Dawn Gilson was third.

Miss Georgia Coleman won the national ten-foot springboard title with
