

Olympic Summary

Following is the summary of Olympic swim events held Monday at Los Angeles:

Mens springboard diving finals: Won by Mickey Riley Galitzen, United States; second, Dutch Smith, U. S.; third, Dick Degener, U. S.; fourth, Andrew Phillips, Canada; fifth, Leo Essar, Germany; sixth, Kazua Kobayashi, Japan.

Women's 100 meter freestyle finals: Won by Helene Madison, U. S.; second, Wil den Ouden, Holland; third, Eleanor Garatti Sayville, U. S.; fourth, Josephine McKim, U. S.; fifth, Neville Bult, Australia; sixth, Jennie Maakai, South Africa. Time, 1 min. 6. 8 sec., establishing a new Olympic and world record.

400 Meters For Men

First heat: Won by Tahashi Yokoyama, Japan; second, James Gilhula, United States; third, George Burrows, Canada. Time, 4 min. 53.2 sec., a new Olympic record. Scratched: Andrew Wanie, Hungary; Albert Zorilla, Argentina; Fernando Maecedo, Brazil.

Second heat: Won by Clarence Crabbe, United States; second, Noboro Sugimoto, Japan; third, Norman Wainwright, Great Britain; fourth, Ignacio Escoto, Mexico. Time, 4 min. 59.8 sec. Scratched: Carlos Kennedy, Argentina; Oscar Collares, Brazil.

Third heat—Won by Andrew Charlton, Australia; second, Pailolo Costoli, Italy; third, Walter Spence, Canada; fourth, Julius Kanassy, Hungary; fifth, Manuel Bouchez, Mexico. Time, 4 min. 59.8 sec.

Fourth heat: Won by Jean Taxis, France; second, Giuseppe Perentin, Italy; third, Robert Leivers, Great Britain; fourth, Nalin Malik, India. Time, 4 min. 53.3 sec. Scratched: Herbert Barthels, United States.

Fifth heat: Won by Noel Ryan, Australia; second, Tsutomu Oyakota, Japan; third, George Larson, Canada. Time, 5 min. 1.9 sec. Scratched: Lodislas Szabados, Hungary, and Mario di Lorenzo, Brazil. Spence of Canada was the fastest third in the five heats, qualifying for the semi-finals.