

Outrigger Open Water Meet On Tap Today

Large Field Entered. Seven Events Will Be Held

A large field of distance swimmers, both men and women, will display their wares this morning at the beach at Waikiki in the annual Thanksgiving Day open water meet, sponsored by the Outrigger Canoe club. The first event will start at 9 o'clock.

Entries of more than twenty swimmers have been received for this meet and in addition the aquatic fans will see fifty University of Hawaii natators in action.

The collegians will hold their own meet in conjunction with the Outrigger competition.

The feature event of the day is the open event in which Sargent and Sam Kahanamoku, Malcolm Love, Ah Kong Pang and Melvin Paoa are entered. The swimmers will be sent on their way by the starter in front of the Castle home and the natators will swim all the way to the beach in front of the Outrigger Canoe Club.

A trophy put up by the Earl M. Thacker Co., will be offered the winner of the race.

In all, seven events will be held and they are as follows with the list of entries:

Public Baths Swim (Men over 30)—Bob Askew, Johnny Hollinger, William Hollinger and Gay Harris.

Cunha Swim—Jean Pope and Della Brown.

Public Baths Swim (Women's Open)—Mildred Slight Hooper, Gladys Slight and Jennie Woodd Harris.

Public Baths Swim (Boys under 18)—Harold Sexton.

Cunha Swim (Boys under 16)—Charles Webster and Benny Hollinger.

Castle Swim for Men (Free for all)—Sargent Kahanamoku, Sam Kahanamoku, Malcolm Love and Ah Kong Pang, Melvin Paoa.

Castle Swim (Men's open)—W. Craw, A. E. Minvielle, James Hurd and K. Pratt.