

OLYMPIC MEN ON SIERRA

Olympic contenders from Australia passed through Honolulu yesterday on the liner Sierra enroute to their homes from Paris. Frank Baurepaire, winner of the 1500 meters swimming race, was one, and the other was C. Jardine, a heavy-weight boxer, who failed to make much of an impression. The two athletes were met at the wharf by "Dad" Center, of the Outrigger club, and Gay Harris, who accompanied the Hawaiian swimming team to Paris. Norman Brookes, Australian tennis champion also was a passenger.
