Outrigger, Lokahi keep regatia records perfect

Outrigger and Lokahi canoe clubs continued to dominate their respective paddling organizations, each winning their third regatta title yesterday. Outrigger won six events and scored points in 19 other races on the 30-race Oahu Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association schedule at Leeward Kai's Regatta at Nanakuli Beach to amass 84 points in the AA division for 15 or more crews. Hui Nalu was a distant second with 46 points followed by Healani with 41, Kailua 40 and Lanikai 15.

In the A division (14 and under crews), Hui Lanakila won its third trophy with 20 points followed by a strong showing from Waikiki Surf Club (17). Anuenue and Waimanalo tied for third.

Eleven crews kept their winning streak intact at three, led by Outrigger's undefeated girls 16s and 18s, women's senior and senior masters, and sophomore men. Also unbeaten in three outings are: Kailua's women's novice A and juniors; Healani's sophomore women; Makaha's boys 13s; Hui Nalu's girls 13s; and Waimanalo's girls 14s. OHCRA's next regatta is Sunday at Waimanalo

Beach beginning at 8:30 a.m. Lokohi wins AA competition: At Hui Wa'a race at Kailua Beach, Lokahi easily won the AA title of the Kaneohe Canoe Club Regatta with 82 points. Kamehameha was second with 36 and Manu O Ke Kai third at 24.

In the small-club division, Ka Mo'i used the strong efforts of its teen-age crews to take first place with 38 points. Windward Kai was second with 30 points and Waikiki Yacht Club third with 25. Hui Wa'a's next regatta is Sunday with Ka Mo'i's
