

HAWAII CLIPPING SERVICE
P.O. Box 2033 - Honolulu, Hawaii
PHONE: 734-8124
Victoria Custer Elaine Stroup
WAIKIKI BEACH PRESS
JUL 29 1985

CURRENTS

EDITOR'S NOTE: Currents listings must be received by noon on the Wednesday prior to publication. Send event information to: Currents, Waikiki Beach Press, P.O. Box 2033, Honolulu, HI 96805.

SPLASHES

Ka Makahiki, revival of ancient harvesting festival when work and war ceased for a four-month period celebration of feasting, dance and games. Our modern version will take place Fri., Aug. 2 at Queen Kapiolani Park in Waikiki, beginning with foot racing at 8 a.m., opening ceremonies at 9 a.m., games, craft fair and open water swim at San Souci Beach at 9:30, followed by guest participant registration, canoe race at 10:30, volleyball at 12:30 p.m. and half hour guest participation. Free. (See page B-13)

Summer craft fair, sponsored by the Honolulu Zoo Hui, featuring a variety of handcrafted items, park fronting Honolulu Zoo entrance, 151 Kapihulu Ave., Sat., Aug. 3, 9-4. Free.

Book sale, annual sale put on by Friends of the Library featuring pocketbooks to collector's items. Most books sell for under $1. McKinley High School Cafeteria, 1039 S. King St. (next to Neal Blaisdell Center Arena), from Sat., Aug. 3-10. Open 10 a.m.-8 p.m. until the 9th, 10-1 on the 10th. Free.

Outrigger Foundation Auction, a chance to bid for some of Tom Selleck's baseball caps and the aloha shirts he's worn on "Magnum, P.I." Other items on the auction block includes condos on the neighbor islands, clothing, a Mazarati for a day, a 1963 Jaguar, jewelry, antiques and more. Outrigger Canoe Club, 2909 Kalakaua Ave., Mon., July 29, 6-30 p.m. $25 admission includes pupus, two drinks and $5 in scrip for the auction. Tickets available at the club. 923-1885.

Pacific Nights, Waikiki Aquarium's Summer by the Sea series of special Tues. evening programs. This week's theme is Oriental art. Learn to make stick puppets, then perform for your friends and family. Snacks will be provided by Little Shanghai. Tues., July 30, 6-8 p.m. Admission by donation at $1.50 adults, children under 16 free. Foods not included in entrance fee. Call 923-9741 for more information.

Autograph Session, with Esther T. Mookini at Mission Houses Museum, 553 So. King Street, with display of original lithographs as they appeared in her book "O Na Holoholona Wawae Eha O Ka Lama Hawaii." The print shop will also offer a demonstration of printing as it was done over 100 years ago. Sat., Aug. 3, 1-3 p.m. Free.

MUSIC

1985 International Music Workshop concert, featuring Donald McInnes on viola, Jean Barr at the piano. Music of Marais, Britten, Brahms, Schubert and Zimbalist. Orvis Auditorium, Univ. of Hawaii, 2411 Dole St., Tues., July 30, 8 p.m. $5 admission at the door. (A soloist concert will precede at 5 p.m. and there will also be a mini concert Aug. 2 at 5 p.m. at Orvis. Both events are free.)

The unaccompanied cello, featuring Gisela Depkat. Part of the 1985 International Music Workshop series of concerts. Wed., July 31, 5 p.m. Orvis Auditorium on the UH campus, 2411 Dole St. $5 admission at the door.

Jazz piano potpourri, featuring Tony Caramia. Part of the 1985 International Music Workshop series of concerts. Orvis Auditorium, 2411 Dole St., Wed., July 31, 8 p.m. $5 admission at the door.

International string orchestra, with the ISW Melkus Ensemble. Part of the 1985 International Music Workshop series of concerts. Kennedy Theatre, on the Univ. of Hawaii campus, East-West Road, Thurs., Aug. 1, 8 p.m. $5 admission at the door.

New South Wales Fire Brigade Band, Hyatt Regency Waikiki's Great Hall, 2424 Kalakaua Ave., first floor by the waterfall. Thurs., Aug. 1, 5 p.m. Free.

Plymouth Festival Ringers, one of the top handbell ringing

SHIRT OFF HIS BACK — The Outrigger Canoe Club is offering the chance to bid for shirts and baseball caps worn by Tom Selleck on his hit series "Magnum, P.I." on Monday, July 29 at 6:30 p.m. $25 admission includes pupus, two drinks and $5 in scrip for the auction. For the men, there will be items as a 1963 Jaguar and a Mazarati for a day also. See "Splashes" for details.

groups in the U.S. from Lawrence, Kansas, will be presented by the Handbell Choirs of St. Andrew's Priory School at the Lutheran Church of Honolulu, 1730 Punahou St., Sat., Aug. 3, 7:30 p.m. Call John Chyatt at 257-3651 for more information.

Royal Hawaiian Band, performance at Iolani Palace, Fri., Aug. 2, 12:15 p.m. Free. Bring a mat and brown bag lunch.

Open-air concert, in front of Mitsukoshi Building at 2155 Kalakaua Ave., every Friday at 8 p.m. Sponsored by the Waikiki Beach Chaplaincy. Free.

Aloha Friday, a day of fun, music, and dance including Hawaiian musical entertainment from noon-2 p.m., Harry's Bar at the Hyatt Regency Waikiki, 2424 Kalakaua Ave., every Friday, 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Free.

Auntie Malia's Pau Hana Show, with live broadcast by KCCN Radio, Harry's Bar at the Hyatt Regency Waikiki, every Friday, 5 p.m. Free.

Polynesian Songs And Dances performed by the Polynesian Cultural Center, Royal Hawaiian Shopping Center, Tues., Thurs. and Sat., 9 a.m. Free.

HAWAII CLIPPING SERVICE
P.O. Box 10242 - Honolulu, Hawaii
PHONE: 734-8124
Victoria Custer Elaine Stroup
HONOLULU STAR BULLETIN
JUL 29 1985

IsleFILE

Isle Team Romps

NAGO CITY, Okinawan—The Hawaii Police Activities League team swept two games to stay alive in the Asian Pacific PONY tournament, including a 9-2 victory over Edogawa of Japan, which had handed the Hawaiians their only defeat.

Reid Hokama hit two home runs and drove in five runs in that game. Hawaii also routed host Nago City, 11-3, as Hokama pitched the victory and added another homer in going 3-for-4 again.

The tournament is for youngsters, 13-14 years of age, and the winner will go to Washington, Pa., for the PONY World Series beginning Aug. 15.

Burigsay Keys Farrington

Larry Burigsay hit a home run in the eighth inning last night, powering Farrington to a 7-6 victory over the Moiliili in American Legion baseball action at Hans L'Orange Field. In another game at the same site, pitcher Jeff Vierra struck out 14 batters as Aiea defeated Waipahu, 8-2. Vierra went the distance and yielded only five hits.

Easterwood Triumphs

Jim Easterwood won the fifth Star-Bulletin sports golf tournament at the Turtle Bay Hilton and Country Club with a 36-hole net score of 136, finishing three strokes ahead of Cy Ohira. Wayne Yoshimura captured the guest flight with a 127 with Doug Boswell finishing second at 128 and Paul Kuramoto third at 129.

Paddleboard Date

The Outrigger Canoe Club Ocean Paddleboard Race, a 5-kilometer (3.1-mile) event, has been rescheduled for 11 a.m., Aug. 10, off the clubhouse beach.

Boards must weigh at least 20 pounds and be no longer than 12 feet. Registration is at 10 a.m. with no entry fee. Awards in seven divisions and refreshments will follow the race.

HAWAII CLIPPING SERVICE
P.O. Box 10242 - Honolulu, Hawaii
PHONE: 734-8124
Victoria Custer Elaine Stroup
HONOLULU STAR BULLETIN
AUG - 1 1985

OCC Paddlers Solid Favorites

Saturday's Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association State Championships at Keehi Lagoon Park shapes up to be another ho-hum, all-Oahu paddle-off.

"Only five clubs entered enough crews to qualify for the top Triple A division," a disappointed Joan Malama said. The Oahu HCRA president said that, of the five, defending champ Outrigger, Kailua and Hui Nalu canoe clubs are heavily favored to sweep the top three places in that order.

Malama said that Healani and Maui's Hawaiian Outrigger qualified for Triple A, but charged.

Although Outrigger is heavily favored to win the team title, it'll be hard pressed to score its usual 100 or more points. "I know that Kailua crews are working hard to beat them. They want Outrigger badly," Malama said.

Outrigger has several winning crews but none more successful than its Boys-18s. Coached by auto magnate Jimmy Pflueger of Honolulu, the crew went undefeated as Boys-16s two years ago and kept its streak alive after graduating into the 18s. "The boys are out to win big on Saturday," Pflueger said.

Brothers Mark and Todd Sandvold, along with Howie Klemmer and Pflueger's son, Alan, are the crew veterans. Mike Sterling and Paul Friese signed on fresh this season. "I hope they find some competition on Saturday," their coach said, "because up to now they haven't had much."

with just the minimum number of crews. "They stand little chance of winning the team title," she added.

SATURDAY'S 39-club championship is grouped into three divisions—AAA for clubs participating in 16 or more of HCRA's 31 events; AA for clubs entering seven through 15 races, and A for clubs fielding six or fewer crews.

"Apparently, the Neighbor Islands are feeling the same paddler shortage as Oahu," Malama said. In past years, Hanalei (Kauai) and Kai Opua (Hawaii) were the Neighbor Island clubs to beat.

Saturday's championship suffered another blow when Hui Wa'a Association's undefeated Ka Mo'i of Waianae elected not to enter the meet after its koa canoe failed to pass HCRA's measurement test. "They (Ka Mo'i) could have borrowed a legal boat had they really wanted to race," paddler Mark Holloway said.

Added Malama, "There goes our dream match between the two unbeaten (Outrigger and Ka Mo'i)."

THE HCRA regatta begins at 8 a.m. and continues throughout the day. Food and souvenirs will be available at booths. Parking will be ample and no admission will be

ALTHOUGH Outrigger, Kailua and Hui Nalu have had little problems filling crew positions, most other Oahu clubs are scrambling for paddlers. "This season's low turnout came as a shock," Malama said. She said OHCRA officials are determined to find out the reason.

Fred Hemmings, a champion surfer and long-time Outrigger paddler, says the sport has serious organizational problems. "Clubs are started with few paddlers and never get off the ground," he said, "plus there are too many races."

Hemmings said that some blue-ribbon events, like the men's and women's senior races, have low turnouts. "These races should be the feature events," he said. Hemmings suggested that weak clubs merge to make strong ones.

"Don't get me wrong," he added, "I appreciate the well-meaning volunteers, coaches and officials. They try hard. But some of their work, unfortunately, is counterproductive."

Hemmings said he believes that although the local organizational structure is in shambles, the sport can be saved. "Padding, just like any sport, needs to be professionally promoted," he said.

HAWAII CLIPPING SERVICE
P.O. Box 10242 - Honolulu, Hawaii
PHONE: 734-8124
Victoria Custer Elaine Stroup
HONOLULU ADVERTISER

JUL 31 1985

don chapman

THE DOTTED LINES: The balloons that brightened up downtown even during the rain yesterday proclaimed that "Dick Kowen is 40," gleefully distributed by friends. Dick, son-in-law of Henry Walker, is an attorney with Cades, Schutte, Fleming and Wright. . . Although they're selling their Kahala beach estate, Chris and Patsy Hemmeyer won't be moving out for a while and new owners Walter and Tiffany James won't be moving over from their home next door for about a year. The Hemmeyers, meanwhile, are already scheduled to buy the James home. . . Prince Abdul Rahman Bin Nasser of Saudi Arabia wanted his children to ride horses while they were staying at the Kauai Beach Villas, so he brought the entire stable from Valerie and David Hepa's Highgates Ranch down to the resort so the kids wouldn't run out of fresh ponies. . . Ron Sorrell and girlfriend Bobbi Irie turned heads when they bid on the free wedding at the Outrigger Foundation benefit auction — nobody knew they were that serious. But what really turned heads was when Ron also bid on a free divorce and on a free pre-nuptial agreement. Those, he said, were for an anonymous friend, to use in that order □ □ □

HAWAII CLIPPING SERVICE
P.O. Box 10242 - Honolulu, Hawaii
PHONE: 734-8124
Victoria Custer Elaine Stroup
WEST HAWAII TODAY
JUL 29 1985

Moloka'i Hoe Oct. 13

The 34th annual Moloka'i Hoe, the 40.8-mile crossing of the Kaiwi (Moloka'i) Channel by canoe, begins at 7:30 a.m. Sunday, Oct. 13 beginning at Hale-O-Lono Harbor on Moloka'i.

The finish line is at Port DeRussy Beach at Waikiki on Oahu. World-class teams from all over the Pacific and Germany are expected to compete. The Outrigger Canoe Club, the defending champions, winners of six of the last 10 crossings and 10 Moloka'i Hoe altogether, are the defending champions.