DIG LAU LAU? Try the ono plate lunch at the zoo (mit two large rice scoops). Watch out for uninvited hungry types — the peacocks, who like to nibble, too ... Happened on TheBus (going from Waikiki to downtown). Crowded with tourists. Suddenly the silence is interrupted by a ringing telephone. A gent in T-shirt and walking shorts, carrying a briefcase, reaches in his pocket, flips his folded phone open and smiles a big hello. Looked like one of those E.F. Hutton TV commercials ... That familiar-looking fella enjoying privileges recently at the Outrigger Canoe Club — Tom Selleck. The unwritten rule at the club: Let him have his privacy. They do! ... Throw-up time: A supermarket-rag headline exploded this "fact" — that Hitler is alive and coming to the aid of Saddam. That would make the WWII fruitcake about 100, wouldn't it? Wonder what those tabloid folks are on, anyway? ... Feathered-friend watching at the Royal Hawaiian Surf Room: At a table near the beach, lunch pau, the couple exit. Next "guests" — birds who land on the table and polish off a couple of rolls ... Finally caught up with Ghost. The blockbuster hit was produced by Howard Koch who directed some of his early film efforts in these parts — like Jungle Heat, on Kauai, starring the late Boris Karloff, many eons ago ... After flying a military mission to the Persian Gulf on Hawaiian Air, flight attendant Paula Finazzo decided to visit the family ancestral land: Palermo, Sicily. She made contact with many relatives, but missed Don Corleone, out of town doing Godfather 3 (The Don part — a joke, folks) ... Ruth and Scotty Koga back from a month in Kenya — on camera safari. Took almost a thousand pictures ... Continuing with the inter'l set, Lanikai's Glen Payton is partnered in a resort development (Zimbali) near the city of Durban, South Africa. When it debuts in about 18 months, there'll be three hotels, three golf courses, marina and condos. The market — mostly Europeans. Durban is one of the great surf areas of the world □□□

WORD SHOULD BE OUT soon that the Elvis estate plans to celebrate the 30th anniversary of his 1961 Arizona Memorial fund-raiser at Bloch Arena (Pearl Harbor). Although the event'll be held in Tennessee, all proceeds will go to the Arizona upkeep fund. (I still have pictures of me and the Colonel hustling Elvis photos during intermission.) "Just take whatever money they hand you," coached ol' Col. Tom Parker. "Twas all for charity. Memories ... It's a tuff life: Bob Cole officially resides in Hawaii Kai — but works in Aspen, Colo. He commutes — four weeks there, one week here. Bob heads up GEO, a very successful wholesale tour co. Mrs. Cole toils for Aston, locally ... Warning from the Better Business Bureau: Never give your credit card number or reveal its expiration date to anyone who calls you. It's a license to steal. Some Mainland telemarketers have been phoning local residents asking them to reveal this kind of info ... Free-lance writer Rick Carroll won first prize in the annual Hawaii Visitor Bureau journalism contest — a weekend (gratis) at the Hilton Hawaiian Village, including the Don Ho show. Carroll took a limo from his Lanikai residence and charged it to the HVB ... If it's not too late, kids interested in joining the Honolulu Boy Choir can call 395-8888. Leave name and number and you'll be contacted about an audition ... "There's no such thing as old age," sez 78-year-young Bernice Lynch of Ahana St. She just had a couple of her poems published (Spunky The Monkey and Piggly Wiggly and Dad) in the American Poetry Anthology. Bernice has been writing for only eight months, and this is how she feels about it: "The rocking chair is out. My arthritis is a doubt, as I go merrily on my way" ... Didja notice — fotos of Ronald Reagan from Europe? His hair is looking very gray □□□

Tapa Topics

TRAVELOG-ING: The up-and-coming Paulin Pacific Group (Mike Paulin) is handling some small classic Waikiki hotels and adding more outer-isle condos to the firm ... These seems at Crabbie's (the new seafood eatery on Ala Wai. Folks with little wooden mallets and wearing bibs pounding away at crabs — while giant-sized Hulk Hogan-types wander in from the adjoining World Gym to chug bottles of fresh juice ... Dave Elmore (former owner of the Islanders and boss of First Family of Travel) is one of the movers helping Denver get a major-league baseball team. Denver voters have already approved a tax plan to finance a stadium ... Artworks: For any home — artist Glenn Steinberg's Diamond Head Serenity. If you love Hawaii you should feel the same way about the painting ... When author Jerry Hopkins' son Nick (17) visited Honolulu recently, dad arranged a reunion of Kahala Elementary School's deaf "grads" (circa 1982) and teachers Martha Miyake and Anita Edwards (both retired). Nick, Tammy Nakashima and Christine Akana spent the afternoon talking, talking, talking ... Don't know the author of this poem, but I'd like to pass along its touching words. It's titled One Little Rose. "I would rather have one little rose/From the garden of a friend/Than to have the choicest flowers/When my stay on earth must end./I would rather have one pleasant word/in kindness said to me/Than flattery when my heart is still/And life has ceased to be./I would rather have a loving smile/From friends I know are true/Than tears shed round my casket/When this world I've bid adieu./Bring me all your flowers today/Whether pink, or white, or red;/I'd rather have one blossom now/Than a truckload when I'm dead." □□□

Outrigger outpaddles the Californians

Oahu's Outrigger Canoe Club passes Diamond Head yesterday on the way to its 14th victory in the 41-mile Bankok Molokai Hoe race. Amid rough seas, the team crossed Kaiwi Channel from Molokai to Oahu in 5 hours, 19 minutes and 38 seconds to dethrone defending champion Offshore Canoe Club of Newport Beach, Calif. Story on Page C1.
