MIDWEEK 8 1989

Eddie Sherman

Notes To You

WAIKIKI SEENS: A large group of Japanese visitors inline - waiting to buy something in the Louis Vuitton store. Where items definitely ain't cheap ... Dr. James Deemer (animal medic) back from carnival time in Rio. Had such a great time, James booked another frolic, the Souse American way, for next year ... Distinction of sorts: Lovely Linda Fulhenzi is the only female stockbroker with the local office of Shearson Lehman and Hutton ... What goes around, comes around, etc.: Come this fall, Joan Rivers reappears on the toob as a daytime talk-show hostess ... Great smiles dept.: Eko, the charmer who often greets customers at the Surf Room. (Royal Haw'n). On the job for 30 years ... These modern times: Bill Cook, with the state Dept. of Biz & Economic Development, flies home on weekends — to Kamuela, on the Big Isle. No doubt it's quicker than some of our Oahu commutes ... The Moana is sure lookin' mighty purrty, as the facelift continues ... Obit: Bob Costa and I had been planning to sit together at the Sinatra-Minnelli-Davis event on March 7 at the Blaisdell. But Bob passed away. We were friends a long time — since our early days in radio at KGMB. I don't think I ever heard a more melodious announcing voice than Costa's. Bob enjoyed a long career in the media and public relations. I always felt he was very talented, but didn't receive the recognition he deserved. A canoe from the Outrigger Canoe Club took his ashes to sea. Bob's kids — Monte, Paige and Tony—did the honors for dad along with paddlers Henry Ayau, Ron Larsen and Aaron Young. Afterwards, widow Zep Costa hosted a mahilunch at the club for about 30 friends. I'll miss you, Robert ... Spotted dining at Tony Manza's: The Gulab Watumulls, Vik Watumull and the Marquis of Waterford, (Tyrone to pals). It was the marquis who introduced Vik's bride Tanya to the Richard Kelleys who offered her a job in Hawaii. Romance and nuptials followed ... Parked next to a large "No Parking" sign in the driveway at the Sheraton-Waikiki — a huge beer truck ... Overheard at Michel's: "He doesn't have any enemies, but his friends won't be seen with him." ... According to the surgeon general, the smarter folks are, the less they smoke ... These modern times: Bruce Stark's Waterfront Towers in Kakaako rising rapidly at the rate of one floor every three days□□□

Maui Mania

MAUI HOLIDAY: Kaui Goring, formerly lifestyles editor at the Maui News, now PRing for the Maui Prince, an oasis at the foot of Haleakala in Makena. Japanese owned ... Food 'n beverage mgr. Gary Strehl and chef Roger Dikon (formerly with Kapalua Bay Hotel) know their art. Food magicians... Dining at the Royal Prince Court, Aussie TV exec Vicki Jones said, "That guy (at the next table) is a dead ringer for Chevy Chase." I looked. It was Chevy Chase. (With wife and friends) ... Prince concierge mgr. Carol Logan-Dawson (currently hapai) has this claim to celebrity. She once baby-sat (while in high school) for Denver Bronco football star John Elway ... Hard to believe, but lots of room on Makena's golf course and tennis courts ... Really recommended for kamaainas: Maui Prince when you wanna flee from Oahu's madness ... Celebrity-watching at the Prince: Sissy Spacek and hubby Jack Fisk ... Mark Rydell (he produced On Golden Pond and Streisand's Nuts) ... Big treat: Snorkeling at the tiny island of Molokini. The fish come up and eat right out of your hand. Believe-it-or-not: West Maui — a mini Waikiki. Saw more whales over a soft drink at Kapalua Bay Hotel than I did on a two-hour whale cruise ... Lahaina's Front Street: "action city. Biz is booming ... Hadda wait 40 minutes for a table at Longhi's. Worth it. The eatery serves some 1,000 meals (or more) daily ... Ran into Kim Jacobsen (publisher of Hawaii Business mag) and longtime galpal Sonya Mitchell, Realtor. Showing family members around Maui... Tell ya more next week □□□

Down Memory Lane

VIGNETTE: Jack Smith is the legendary columnist (30 years) for the Los Angeles Times. But back in 1938, he toiled for the Honolulu Advertiser — for \$15 a week. Actually, the paper didn't even pay him. The money came from sports editor Red McQueen. Then, in 1941, Jack finally was a full-fledged reporter at the princely sum of \$150 — a month. Jack had sat outside editor Ray Coll's office for five days before he was hired. Visiting Hawaii for the second time since those long days, Jack reminisced about a special date and time. It was Dec. 6. Jack and pal Harry Albright attended an allnite party at Diamond Head. Driving thru Honolulu's streets at 8 ayem on that historic Sunday, they pulled over to watch the aerial acrobatics over Pearl Harbor. Albright, a military PR man in those days, exclaimed, "I told those blankety-blank guys not to do anything like that without letting me know," he steamed. He thot it was a military exercise. Jack and Harry had lots to talk about last week as they strolled down memory lane. Smith was in town for a few days, having sailed over on the $QE \ 2 \square \square \square$

Leftovers

F YOU CHECK OUT the Ch. 4 soap opera The Bold and the Beautiful you'll glimpse Terri Ann Linn (Miss Hawaii-USA 1981) in a major role ... Congrats dept.: To the hundreds of volunteers of the Awa Lau Wahine Officers' Club who've raised hundreds of thousands of dollars the past 34 years for charity. The gals' current Mardi Gras Follies (Jack Cione directed), a hit on the military-club circuit ... Movin' on up: Ben Erickson named field supervisor for Consolidated Theaters... Overheard at Hard Rock Cafe: "Wanna leave Las Vegas with a small fortune? Go there with a big one." (Rim.) shot) ... More small-world dept.: When locals Pat Offer and hubby Emil were in Kruger Nat'l Park, South Africa, they bumped into old pal Dave Nottage, avid Kona fisherman□□□

HAWAII CLIPPING SERVICE P.O. Box 10242
Honolulu, Hawaii 96816
PHONE: 734-8124
Victoria Custer Elaine Stroup HONOLULU STAR BULLETIN 9 1989 MAR

'Ultimate Event' wasn't billed as a fight spectacle

OLLOWING their dynamite "Ultimate Event" performance at the Blaisdell Arena Tuesday night, Liza Minnelli and Sammy Davis Jr. accepted the invitation from Tom Selleck and Larry Manetti to visit The Black Orchid, the Restaurant Row eatery the two "Magnum" alums own along with Randy Schoch and Pat Bowlen. Ol' Blue Eyes begged off because of the cold he's been battling, but joining Liza and Sammy for a late night supper were Frank Sinatra Jr. (who conducted the 44-piece orchestra for his dad) and stepmother Barbara Marx Sinatra . . . What a show the three put on! The only damper on a wonderful evening was the fist fight that broke out a few rows behind me, which left one man with a bloody face. Beer was flying back and forth and two couples were ejected. "Icould understand this at a Ted Nugent

HAWAII CLIPPING SERVICE P.O. Box 10242 Honolulu, Hawaii 96816 PHONE: 734-8124 Victoria Custer Elaine Stroup

HONOLULU ADVERTISER

Plant & Orchid Sale, presented by the Hawaii Association of Nursery-men, 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. today, 9 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. tomorrow, and 9

a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday at the Neal

Blaisdell Center Exhibition Hall. There will be seminars, a name-the-plant contest, door prizes, and exhibits of

'Made in Hawaii With Aloha" promotion, featuring exhibits and displays on food, fashion, gift items and other products manufactured in Hawaii, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. today, tomorrow and Sunday at the Royal Hawaiian

Shopping Center, Also, March 25 and 26, and April 1 and 2. Highlights this weekend include a fashion show at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the Fountain Courtyard; Polynesian Cultural Center Mini Show at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at Building C, first floor; music by Hale Ahl

from 4 to 6 p.m. tomorrow at Fountain Courtyard: Nightwing at 4 p.m. Sunday at Fountain Courtyard. Sponsored by the State Department of Business and Economic Development, Business Development Branch.

tion, 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. today at the Outrigger Canoe Club. The cocktail dansant (cocktails and dansing) will feature the music of Clyde Pound and Unison Inc. Proceeds from the event will benefit the Alliance Française scholarship fund, Tickets: $30. Reser vations required: 949-4683, 988-2945.

dia show, opening at 7 p.m. today at the Bishop Museum Planetarium.

Showings: 2 p.m. Mondays through Fridays, and 7 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays; through June 10. Admission: $2.50 for adults, $1.25 for children, or included with general admission to the museum. Information: 848-4136. Reservations for evening shows only:

Temperance Society in honor of National Women's History Month, 7 p.m.

today, and 1 p.m. tomorrow at the Mission Houses Museum. After the meeting, Dr. Anna Keppel, director of Women's Studies at the University of Hawaii, will lead a discussion on the role of women in social reform. Admission: $3.50 for adults, $1 for chil-building and decoration, conducted by Bill Lofthouse, 9 to 11 a.m. tomorrow at the Hyatt Regency Waikiki. Sponsored by Aloha Week, Continental

Airlines, Hyatt Hotels and the Hawaii

State Department of Business and Economic Development. Fee: $10.

Pageant, 7 p.m. tomorrow at the Neal Blaisdell Center Concert Hall, Presented by the Honolulu Japanese Junior Chamber of Commerce. Tickets

$18 and $15. Information: 949-2255.

Jazzercise FunFest, 7 p.m. tomorrow at the Young Buddhist Association gymnasium, 1710 Pali Highway.

Featuring health and fitness exhibits.

vendors, entertainment, refreshments, door prizes, and Jazzercise

preliminary rounds of the Mokuleia

Challenge Cup, Sunday at the Mokuteia polo field. Half-time festivities include include an art fair by local artists

Wyland, Jonus Englund, Daniel Van

Zyle and others: Budweiser Clydes-date haywagon rides for keikis, a sky-diving exhibition by Skydive Hawaii and a media celebrity match. Sponsored by Jim Slemons Volvo Hawaii and KHHH "The Wave" Radio. Gates open at 11 a.m. for picnicking and tailgating. The first of two matches begins at 2 p.m. Admission: $5 for adults, children under 12 tree, information: 637-7656.

Hawaii Polo Club season opener and Reservations required: 944-8857.

Cherry Blossom Festival Queen

Parade Float Seminar on float

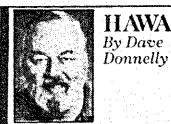

dren, Information: 531-0481.

9th Century Meeting of the O'ahu

"How to Watch a UFO," a multi-me-

French Bicentennial Celebra-

indoor and outdoor plants. Admission:

HAWAII

concert," one friend quipped, "but with

Sinatra?" AMONG those who were guests of Gene Axelrod at the Honolulu Club before and after the "Ultimate Event" were Maestro. Donald Johanos and wife Corinne, chatting with longtime Symphony supporter Jim Nabors . . . I was with a group of 20 people who bought a block of seats, and to beat the parking hassle, we met at 6 p.m. at the apartment of a friend who lives in the Admiral Thomas apartment. Parking was plentiful there at that hour and we walked the short distance to the Arena

... It was hardly an "Ultimate Event," but a contingency of 18 Hard Rock Cafe employees, led by coach/g.m. Jeff Cross, came in second at the recent SportsFest at Ala Moana Park. A Hard Rock'er known only as "Al the Waiter" goofed at the kayak finish line, causing a 10-second penalty and denying the eatery the victory crown. Put that man on K.P.

THE Contemporary Museum (2411 Makiki Heights Drive) is currently exhibiting works created by Billy Al Bengston over the past three decades. Bengston, who divides his time between Hawaii and Los Angeles, is a sports and fitness buff who breakfasts frequently at the Outrigger. Canoe Club after a run and swim. Evident in the show (running through April 30) is the influence of Hawaii in Bengston's themes and symbols . . . John H. Prichett is a talented caricaturist and his original pen and ink caricatures of both local and global personalities will be on display from March 14 to April 21 at Cafe Che Pasta downtown . .

Davis Jr.

Colendar HAWAII CLIPPING SERVICE P.O. Box 10242 Honolulu, Hawaii 96816 PHONE: 734-8124 Victoria Custer Elaine Stroug HONOLULU ADVERTISER

MAR 1 4 1989

"USING THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT," "DSING THE FREEDOM OF MICHAELE AND RECUTES BY David Morrissey, defanse reporter who used the FOI Act to epose the U.S. Air Force's accidental dropping of a hydrogen bomb near Albuquerque, 9 a.m., March 14, University of Hawaii, Manoa campus, Hemenway Hall theater, and noon, Manoa Campus Center, room 307-308, Information:

ST. PATRICK'S DAY DANCE, with Big Band music, 7 to 10 p.m., March 17, Walkiki Community Center, 310 Pacakalani Ave. Small fee, information: 923-1802. PROBABILITY AND THE STREET OF THE TOTAL TO THE THE STREET OF THE STREET

THAI JEWELRY SALE, fundraiser for Hickam Officer's Wives' Club, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. & 5 to 7 p.m., March 14-17, Hickam Officers' Club, Information; Jane Cormelly, 422-2194.

ANNUAL PLANT & ORCHID SALE, Hawar Association of Nurserymen, 19 a.m. to 9:30 p.m., March 17: 9 a.m. to 9:30 p.m., March 18 and 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., March 19, Blaisdell Center, exhibition had, Information: 833-3369. FRENCH BICENTENNIAL CELEBRATION, cocktails &

FREE AIDS INFORMATION SEMINAR, "AIDS 101," sponsored by Kaiser Permanente, 7 to 9 p.m., March 15, Honokulu Clinic, S. King and Pensacola streets, conference room 1A. Registration: 529-2250. UPCOMING LYON ARBORETUM events, through March 31, include classes in ornamental fi (plant) cultivation, making children's Easter Bunny Dish Gardens and Teman Easter Eggs, children's potpournaking and tim summon ton classes and a historic Honolulu, tour with Boatrice Krauss. Information:

SIERRA CLUB NEPAL SLIDE SHOW, by John Ogata; 7 p.m., March 16, Church of the Crossroads, 1212 University Ave. Information: Ramona Hussey, age 5704.

BALLROOM DANCE REGISTRATION, Kalmuki Community Ballroom Dance Club, 7 p.m.; March 16, Aliiolani School, 1240 Seventh Ave., Kalmuki, Information: 737'-8459.

CONTEMPORARY NATIVE AMERICAN POETRY from the Southwest, reading by Luci Tapahonso & Dr. Ofelia Ziepeda, sponsored by 'Aha Punana Leo, 7 pm., March 16, University of Hawaii, Manoa campus, Korean Studies Center, auditorium. Information: 948-8111. JAPANESE BUSINESS CLASSES, including those on living & working in Japan and dealing with Japan's business, government & political atmosphere, sponsored tby Kapiolani Community College, beninning 14, Diamond Head campus, Information March 14 734-9233.

TUMBLING/BALLET/ACROBATICS classes, by non-profit (Sports Acrobatics Hawaii club, 7 to 9 p.m., Thursdiay, beginning March 20, McCully Recreation Center; Small less, Information: 734-4869.

HAWAII CLIPPING SERVICE P.O. Box 10242
P.O. Box 10242
Honolulu, Hawaii 96816
PHONE: 734-8124
Victoria Custer Elaine Stroup

DOWNTOWN PLANET

MAR 1 3 1989

Celebrate the French Bicentennial with "Cocktail Dansant"

The public is invited to join in a French are $30 per person and include hot and Bicentennial celebration, under the cold hors d'oeuvres. No-host cocktails auspices of the French Consul General and wine will be available. Daniel Droulers, on Friday, March 17 from 6:30-9:30 pm at the Outrigger Ca, the Alliance Française scholarship fund noe Club.

dancing) will feature the popular music Natalie Mahoney at 949-4683 or Lillian of Clyde Pound and Unison Inc. Tickets Adams at 988-2945.

Proceeds from the event will benefit enabling Hawaii teachers and students to The "cocktail dansant," (cocktails and study in France. For more details, call

HAWAII CLIPPING SERVICE P.O. Box 10242 Honolulu, Hawaii 96816 PHONE: 734-8124 Victoria Custer Elaine Stroup HONOLULU ADVERTISER

MAR 1 0 1989

Don Chapman ...

IS AND DOT: Here she is. Miss Hawaii Pacific College, Jeanette Schuessler A junior majoring in psychology, she's the latest young woman to qualify for the Miss Hawaii pageant in June Salon owner Paul Brown, in New York on business,

got together with author Susan Son-Schuessler tag, an old pal, and received an autographed copy of her book "AIDS and Its Metaphors"... Kaimana Beach/New Otani Hotel g.m. Steve Boyle now calls the place United Nations-West after hosting representatives from North and South People's Republic of China and the U.S. for the first-ever Asia-Pacific Dialogue on Peace and Security . . . Surgeon Gen. C. Everett Koop told Bob Raab of the "Smokefree Class" of 2,000" project that it has "the potential to have more impact than the Salk Vaccine" in saving lives

Korea, Vietnam, the Soviet Union,

SLE STYLE: Knowing that Sam-Lmy Davis Jr. has gone nearly five years without a drink, Hilton Hawaiian Village waitress Sheila

Mae Sanford was aghast when Sammy ordered a Tropical Itch from her. But she brought him the drink and Sammy said: "Thanks, I just wanted the back scratcher," which comes with the drink, which he didn't touch otherwise ... It's hard to imagine a better kickoff for the Blaisdell Center's 25th anniversary than the Frank Sinatra, Liza Minnelli and Sammy "Ultimate Clark Experience"...

Nice moment during their second show when a local woman tried to give a haku lei to Liza, but she declined to stoop down to accept it. Sinatra walked over, took the haku lei from the woman and put it on his head — and received a huge ovation ... Ch. 4's Leesa Clark watched the second show with Barbara Sinatra, who is Leesa's cousin on her mother's side; it was the first time they'd met . . . The Punaluu Punster referred to the fellow who got punched during the first "Ultimate" concert as "Old Black Eyes" [O D

RI. ON WRY: Popular playground song at my children's pre-school is sung to the tune of La

Bamba: "La la la bamba/I lost my mama/at Ala Moana" . . . Big controversy at the Outrigger Canoe Club - whether or not to install a ramp for wheelchairs ... Artist Cosmio Propellor is the latest to wonder if the city shouldn't move those porta-potties — or, as Cosmio calls them. "fiberglass temples of relief" - a little farther back from Kaimana Beach, a.k.a. Dig Me Beach: "When the trade winds blow, the stench can be overpowering"... A better suggestion might be to renovate Natatorium restrooms for Kaimana beachgoers, so to speak \square \square \square

OTS ALL, FOLKS: New ESPN show, "A Day at the Beach," will include a regular feature from Hawaii. "Surfer Joe"

Teipel

Teipel, host for the local segment, will tape the first one this weekend at Buffalo's Bigboard surf contest at Makaha ... Newly re-opened Rumours has been so busy that they've hired Bobby Acoba, when he's done bartending upstairs at Nicholas Nickolas, to do magic for folks waiting in line to get in on weekend nights □ □ □