

OUTRIGGER'S BASKET TEAM OFF FOR HILO

The Outrigger Canoe club basketball team sails for Hilo tomorrow. It will play a series of games in the Big Island city with the star team there, returning to Honolulu on January 17. The party will include Messrs. Swan, Nolan, Nottage, Quinn, Huffman and Quick.

There were no games played last night in the Honolulu Commercial Basketball league. The armory is being used by the various Hawaiian societies during this week and will not be available for basketball until after the funeral of the late Prince Kuhio.

Four games remain to be played. Liberty House meets Rawleys and Bishop Bank meets Hawaiian Electric in the first date and Standard Oil plays Bank of Hawaii, while Theo. H. Davies tackles Hawaiian Pines in the second set.
