

HILO CONQUERS

tle with the Al. Chinese, and all Hilo knows the Chinese chaps are no novices at this game. Should the Outriggers lose tonight, and they realize they are up against some snappy and seasoned veterans, they will have to return to Honolulu with at least two defeats to their discredit, and a strong possibility of three, should they lose tonight, for the Hilo Boarding School Alumni team which they go up against Saturday night, are the local champs and will put forth the most strenuous effort of their career.

The line-up last night was.

Outriggers—Swan and Nolan, forwards; Nottage, center; Quick and Hoffman, guards. Quinn substituted as forward.

Hilo Picked team—Suzukawa and E. Baptiste, forwards; Brown, center; Marcelino and M. Jimbo, guards. Todd substituted at center, and Kam Akana and Higuchi as forwards.

St. Mary's—Kim Peker and W. Costa, forwards; Pau, center; Watson and Momi, guards.

Union school—Makaji and Tutehashi, forwards; Keohi, center; P. Ako and R. Whitney, guards. Ah Leong substituted for guard.

Carter refereed and Lai Hip umpired both games. Watson and Nottage scored, and Charles Trew held the watch.
