

WORLD STARS TO CHRISTEN TANK

◆◆◆ ◆◆◆◆ ◆◆◆◆ ◆◆◆◆

DUKE AND RUTH STACKER FIRST

World star swimmers will christen the Elizabeth P. Waterhouse Memorial tank at Punahou next Saturday night in the first swimming meet. The first event of the evening is the relay between students and alumni members and then will come the exhibition swims by famous swimmers.

Duke P. Kahanamoku, world champion, will lead the men, while Ruth Stacker, the first girl swimmer to put Hawaii on the map, will lead the mermaids.

The invitations have been extended also to the following mermen and mermaids: W. W. Harris, Pua Kealoha, Warren Kealoha, Sam Kahanamoku, Ah Kong Pang, Charlie Pung, Kenneth Ross, A. E. Minville, A. M. Brown, General Addison, R. E. Simerson, Bouldin Burbank, L. Reynolds, K. Makinney, Bob Fuller, Mariechen Wehse-lau, Helen Moses, Estelle Cassidy, Ruth Scudder, Dolly Mooney, Cecily Cunha, Eleanor Bickerton, C. Searle, Christine Smoot, Thelma Kenn, Edith Kenn, Moilili Akana, Kapiolani Kahanamoku and Josephine Hopkins. The Palama girl swimmers will also be present to take part in the Girl Scouts race.

The majority of these swimmers have already signified their intention of being present. The official invitations went out yesterday.

SIXTEEN MACHINES IN FOR SCHUMAN CO.

The Schuman Carriage Co. received a total of 16 machines on the steamer Maui from the mainland this week.

Of this lot there were 10 Ford touring cars, two Ford chassis, Essex coaches and one Essex touring car.