

ALL READY! PUNAHOU MEET TOMORROW NIGHT

The first swimming meet of the year will be staged tomorrow night when the new Elizabeth P. Waterhouse memorial tank at Punahou will be utilized for the first time. The meet was originally scheduled last Saturday night but due to inclement weather was postponed one week. Tickets dated last Saturday will be good tomorrow night and according to advance report there has been a heavy ticket sale.

Duke Kahanamoku, Warren Kealoha, Pua Kealoha, W. W. "Wild Bill" Harris and other famous swimmers will give exhibitions under the direction of George "Dad" Center. Marichen Wehselau, Helen Moses, Estelle Cassidy and other famed island mermaids will also perform.

Officials

The general committee in charge of events at the meet will consist of Miss Cecil Black, W. W. Chamberlain, E. B. Clark, D. L. Conkling, H. R. Erdman, C. W. Macfarlane, G. N. Rothwell, A. L. Silverman, A. H. Tarleton, and G. S. Waterhouse.

Those who are to act as officials are as follows: Director, E. T. Chase; referee, C. E. Mayne; judges, B. H. Clarke, D. L. Conkling. Mrs. F. L. Leo; timers, B. Hollinger, R. Horner, N. H. Myhre; starter, W. A. Cottrell; scorer, C. E. Warriner; announcer, A. A. Kinney.