

Palama Gives Fans a Treat By Walloping Leading Team

Kalihi Boys Put Great Defensive Game and Rattle the Guard Five to a Victory

Wednesday's games in the Honolulu League basketball championship series are as follows:

Palama vs. University.

Outrigger vs. Guard.

The winners in these two games will play for the championship next Monday evening at the Armory. Palama won from Guard last night and Outrigger won from University.

It was an evening of surprises last night at the Armory.

In the first place the Palama team, which had a hard tussle to get into the four finishers in the league first round, cleaned up on the league leaders, the National Guard team. The score was 29 to 22, and one member of the guard team turned positively hostile after the game and was about to declare a jihad on anybody in reach. A few moments of discussion followed and the snickersnee was finally buried for the evening.

In the second game the University of Hawaii had the Outriggers by the short hair. The surfers were playing with five men only, no subs on the sideline, and fouls were rolling in rather quick in certain sections. The University rooters got a big thrill out of the first phases of the game. The green and white led in the first quarter, retained the lead in the second quarter. In the third period Outrigger began to play a little basketball and the 23 to 15 tally at the end of the first half was turned to 24-23 at the end of the third quarter, although it still remained in favor of the Varsity.

The last quarter was one of those see-saw affairs with either team on the verge of victory. It was a brilliant period as has been seen here in some time. Outrigger finally galloped ahead and came in winners by the 34 to 32 tally announced before.

Palama's team in the first game was a great combine, and looked better than that club's basketball five has before this year. Lee Chong was a winner in heaving baskets on penalty throws, while he, Kopp and Hips shared honors in throwing baskets from the floor. The team's defensive was excellent.
