

DUKE TRAINING FOR SOMETHING OR OTHER

Duke P. Kahanamoku, star sprinter, is in training. What for? Is he going to enter the meet against John Weissmuller of Chicago in May, providing he is still an amateur despite his signing a movie contract?

Every afternoon the star hits the water at Waikiki and goes off on a little mile or two-mile journey up toward Diamond Head. Then when he comes back he takes the surfboard or paddles a canoe.

Ask him why he's training and his reply is non-committal. Merely to keep in shape is the substance of it.
