

Committee Which Glad-Handed Cinder Track Runner

Here is the committee from the Hawaiian A. A. U. which welcomed Charley Paddock, world champion sprinter, to Honolulu this morning. Paddock is to run in the A. A. U. meet Saturday at Kamehameha field.

Back row, left to right—Victor Ligda of McKinley High school, L. Potter Thurston (Yale and Outrigger Canoe club swimming star returning home), George ("Dad") Center, president of the Hawaiian A. A. U.; Charley Paddock of Los Angeles and the University of Southern California, and Helen Moses of Outrigger Canoe club, who met Paddock when she swam in the Antwerp Olympic swim meet.

Front row—R. J. Borden of Kamehameha schools, Bo Wilson, chairman of games committee in charge of A. A. U. track meet; W. W. Harris, Outrigger club swimmer, and Duke Kahanamoku, world champion swimmer.
