

ANNOUNCE PROGRAM FOR MERMAID MEET

The committee in charge of the fourth annual Hawaiian swimming meet for women has announced the program for the night of April 29 at Punahou tank.

The first event will be the 100 yards women's open, followed by the 50 yards women's novice. Then will come the 100 yards men's open and the spring board diving for women. Next is the 50 yards business girls' race and then the men's plunge for distance. After this is the 35 yards race for girls under 11 years. Then comes the 50 yards backstroke for women and then the 100 yards school relay. Next is the 100 yards men's backstroke, the plunge for women, the 25 yards for girls under 12 years, the 50 yards for grammar school girls, the 50 yards women's breaststroke and the 200 yards men's relay.

That makes four men's and 13 women's events. Medals will be given for all but the relay and the girls under 11 and 13 years races. The relay will have a cup while other prizes will go to the two midget races.

The next meeting of the committee in charge is scheduled for Monday afternoon at Punahou.
